Dear Lavenia,

The 1949 PANTHER

Dedication

To the 1949 Paschal Panther Basketball Team, great champions and greater sportsmen, and to the finest coach, Charles Turner, this Panther is respectfully dedicated.

Foreword

On the sixth of June, 1849, Major Ripley Arnold began the building of what has become the city of Fort Worth. In only one hundred years an originally small army settlement has grown into a thriving metropolis, whose population now numbers 325,227.

Progress has been the pressing force of our city's growth; and in this, our centennial year, the Panther Staff has attempted to show that spirit of progress in the annual.

We admit that in places actual historical accuracy has been subordinated in order to draw a more direct comparison; but the feeling is there: that Fort Worth has advanced and will always continue to do so.

Administration

The Fort Worth Public School System is considered one of the finest in the South, with a present plant of fifty-one grade schools and eighteen junior and senior high schools. Enrollment for the year 1948-49 is 5,618 in senior high schools 7,013 in junior high schools, and 18,912 in elementary schools.

In the plans for the future of our school system is the addition of eight new elementary schools, two new junior high schools, besides additions to many existing buildings.

The Fort Worth Public Library, opened in June, 1939, is a model of modern library planning. Available to its 55,318 registered members are 165,016 books and extensive files of local and national publications. In the music divisions, records are on hand for listening.

As part of its service, the library offers books to residents of the country outside the city by means of its bookmobile. Only recently put into service, this bookmobile is the first of several to be purchased.

Instead of rude, open assemblages, Fort Worth now enjoys one of the finest coliseums and auditoriums in the country. Second only to Madison Square Garden in the variety of its uses, the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum is the scene of rodeos, circuses, boxing tournaments, appliance shows, ice spectacles, and high school commencements. The building is decorated by the longest tile frieze in the United States.

In the meager settlement in the fort was a rude chapel, far different from the magnificent church shown on the opposite page.

Now Fort Worth's people are among the country's greatest church goers, with two hundred eighty churches representing thirty different denominations.

Fort Worth's transportation facilities have grown with the city from the day in July, 1876, when the first narrow-guage line was opened. Now the city is one of the country's greatest rail-road centers, with nine trunk lines with sixteen outlets. The volume of freight interchanged is the largest of that of any city in the Southwest.

Air travel, too, is well provided in Fort Worth, with the fine Midway Airport in the planning. Now taken care of at Meacham Field are fifty daily regularly scheduled passenger line stops.

Fort Worth provides approximately one acre of developed recreational area for every thirty-one inhabitants; with forty-seven parks containing 4,500 acres of wooded scenery; seventy-five school grounds; and four municipal golf courses. Fort Worth's Botanic Gardens, laid out in 1936, are nationally known, and the city's three lakes with a total water area of forty square miles offer a chance for water sports.

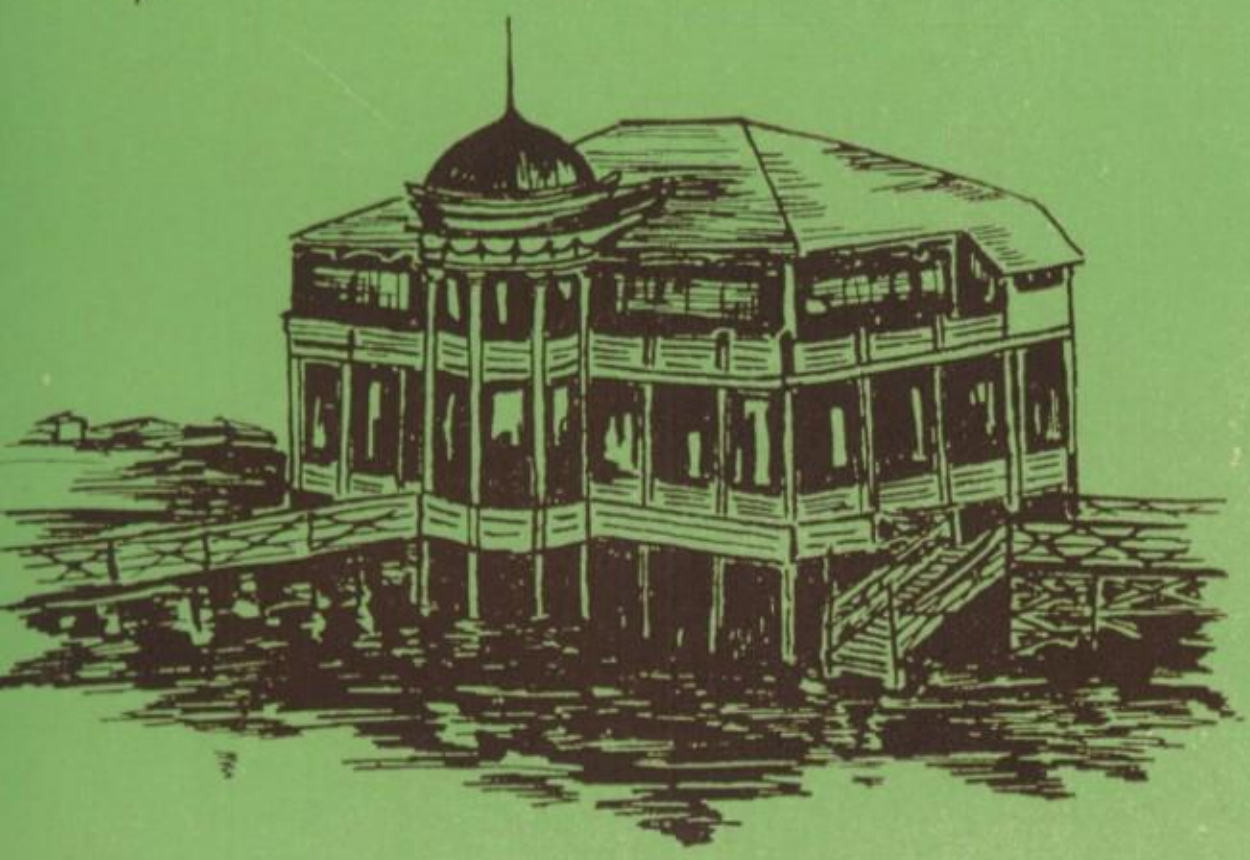
Organization

Club facilities in Fort Worth are more than ample to suit every taste, with four country clubs, each with an eighteen-hole golf course, where national tournaments are held annually. The Fort Worth Club is now considered the best equipped city club in the Southwest. The Women's Club, with a membership of 1,500, sponsors many worthwhile activities, as do also the Masonic organizations and Elk's Club.



AVIATION CLUB

One of the newer clubs in Paschal, the Flying Panthers, is an organization for anyone interested in aviation.

The Flying Panthers put five hundred hours into the making of an air marker, the first ever made by high school students.

Members of the club participate in field trips and excursions as an interesting part of their activities. The mechanics, designing, theory of flight, and other parts of aviation are discussed at monthly meetings.

The Flying Panthers is sponsored by Miss Mary Musgrave, with the assistance of Mr. F. E. Calhoun as off-campus sponsor. The officers are Everette Morton, president; Kenneth Reynolds, vice-president; Lucille Love, secretary; Jean Majors, treasurer.

PASCHAL BAND

The Paschal Band strives to introduce students to better music for leisure time and to increase school spirit.

The band was organized in 1922 by J. C. King. In 1938 Ken McGarrity took over, made it a co-ed band, and increased it from a twenty-five to a sixty piece concert band. Our present director, Colonel Whitehurst, took charge of the band in 1943. Since then he has increased the number and the playing ability of the band tremendously.

The Paschal Band plays for football games, pep rallies, public and patriotic parades, and assembly programs. It also takes part in the T. C. U. Annual Clinic and the annual band festival. At the state band contest many Paschal players won awards.

Officers this year are Neil Lindley, president; Armo Nixon, vice-president; Betty Jo Hughes, secretary; G. W. Horn, drum major; Don Garret, student director.

BOWLING CLUB

The Bowling Club is an organization that combines business and pleasure as members have meetings at the bowling lanes.

Affiliated with the American Junior Bowling Congress, the local club is always represented in the National Telegraphic Tournament to be held in April. The club's holders of the highest averages will be selected to go to this tournament. Medals will be given to the six winning teams, and they may participate in the annual invitation handicap tournament.

The Bowling Club is sponsored by Mr. C. H. Dobbs. The officers this year are Richard Cofer, president; Chuck Young, vice-president; Nancy Imbt, treasurer; Adelene Loya, secretary.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB

The Distributive Education Club's aim is to develop leadership and citizenship in the students who will be the future leaders in the distribution of merchandise.

The club is composed of boys and girls who earn while they learn by working every afternoon and Saturday in one of the fields of training in distribution—wholesale, retail, or service-selling.

The Distributive Education Club is sponsored by Miss Anne Buckley. The officers are Marilyn Norman, president; Peggy Sanders, vice-president; Jo Ann Maze, secretary; Jean Loudermilk, reporter; Dorothy Creecy, historian; Harold Shannon, sergeant-at-arms.

The Honor System Council, set up after the Honor System was installed in 1941 by Principal O. D. Wyatt, lays stress on scholarship, loyalty, courtesy and cooperation, and is dedicated to the purpose of impressing these principles in the minds of the students at Paschal.

The Honor System Council is made up of a representative group from the students. One representative and an alternate are elected by the students of each home room at the beginning of the term. These pupils must have no grade below a "C" and an "A" in citizenship.

The Council handles the sales of annuals each year, puts out a student directory, presents a mock wedding between the president of the Council and a new member. This organization also sponsors the annual Homecoming.

The officers this year are Bill Burton, president; Mary Louise Baker, vice-president; Marilyn Mosley, secretary; Martha Reppeto, reporter. The Council is sponsored by Misses Grace Burkett and Zelma Rhodes.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

"Promoting and studying classical themes, ideals, and their effect on students' lives throughout the years" is the motto at which the Latin and history students of the J. C. L. aim.

The J. C. L. has always been one of the largest and most active clubs in Paschal. The seventy members plan their annual initiation party near Halloween and a club picnic in the spring. Also there is an observance of Latin Week, which usually comes the first week in April.

The J. C. L. was organized in 1918 by Miss Lily B. Clayton, but did not become affiliated with the state organization until a few years later. The present sponsors are Miss Anna Gardner and Miss Doris Cheney. The officers are Bo Wheeler, president; Beverly Hellman, vice-president; Charles Powell, secretary; Jeanice Davis, treasurer; Jeannette Davis, parliamentarian; Lynwood Elliott, sergeant-at-arms; Barbara Cohn, Torch reporter; Dick Growald, critic.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross was instituted in Paschal in the Fall of 1939 and has been under the sponsorship of Miss Grace Burkett, Dean of Girls, until this year. At first, the organizatoin was only moderately active, but since 1940, outstanding contributions have been made annually. This year's sponsors are Miss Gwendolyn Howell and Mrs. Margaret Mitchell. In each home room a representative was elected or appointed to the Red Cross Council, which formulates plans for the campaigns of the school year.

Of the four regular projects undertaken this year by the Junior Red Cross, three were very creditably completed during the first semester. These were the membership drive, in which many rooms joined a hundred percent, the Clothing-for-Europe drive, and the collection of candy and soap for hospitalized veterans. During the second semester, the fourth objective, filling of cartons with useful articles for European children, was accomplished.

JUNIOR HISTORIANS

Purpose of the Junior Historians is to encourage members to record interesting incidents of local history.

The club began in 1937 when students in Room 234 began writing stories of "My Family in the Civil War." The director of the Texas State Historical Association thought that this would be an excellent way to record local history, and in 1937 the Junior Historians became an affiliated organization of the T.S.H.A. Since that time Paschal students have had over one hundred stories of local history published in the official magazine of the Junior Historians.

The club, under the sponsorship of Miss Ruby Mixon at Paschal, and with Mr. Boyce House as citizen sponsor, plans to attend the state convention in Austin the weekend of April 21.

Officers are Jerry Blackwell, president; Sam Hulsey, vice-president; and Barbara Cohn, secretary.

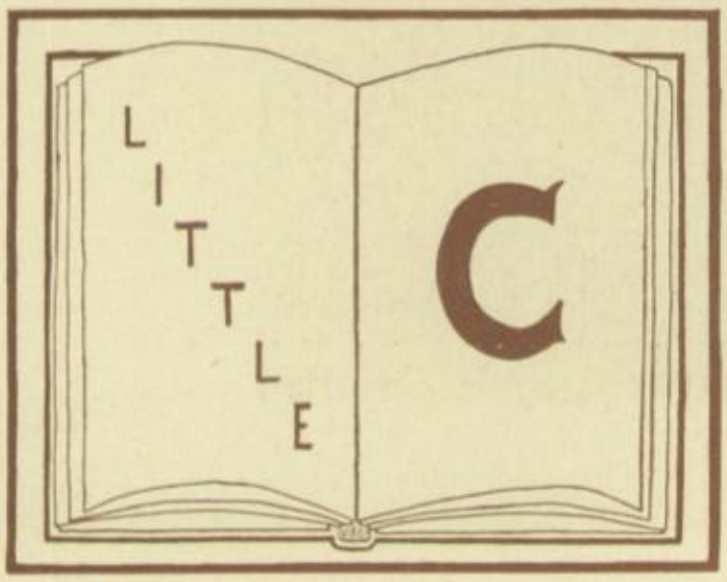
LITTLE CONGRESS

Little Congress is an organization which promotes the study of Civic Arts as well as parliamentary procedure and law.

Fourteen years ago the Little "C" was first organized by Miss Mary Sweet as a debate club. When debating was dropped from the public schools, the club assumed its present form.

The Little Congress is famous for its slumber parties and its contributions to charities and worthy organizations. A traditional social affair is the spring banquet, which is the final activity of the year.

The Little "C" is sponsored by Misses Jimmy Benson and Claudia Mae Workman. The officers are Betty Kimball, president; Bebe Smith, first vice-president; Peggy Robinson, second vice-president; Pat Towsen, secretary; Pat Edwards, treasurer; Sue Markley, parliamentarian; Mary Hayth, sergeant-at-arms; and Aileen Welch, reporter.



PAN AMERICAN STUDENT FORUM

The Pan American Student Forum strives to promote good will and better understanding between ourselves and Latin Americans. The members find this a pleasant and informative task.

The Pan American program given in the spring, the annual convention in Austin, and the club's Christmas celebration centered around the "pinata" and Latin American carols, are all enjoyed activities of this organization.

This club is sponsored by Miss Louise Bomar. The officers are Arden Wilson, president; Beverly Hellman, vice-president; Sue McCulloch, recording secretary; Jane Ann Barker, corresponding secretary; Louise Randall, treasurer; Cecil Bailey, pianist; Jerry Bennet, sergeant-at-arms; Ruth Martin, reporter.

PANTHERETTE STAFF

Putting out the weekly paper, the "Pantherette," means a lot of work for Paschal's journalism students, but they claim it's lots of fun, too.

The "Pantherette" has won the Quill and Scroll International First Place Award every year since 1942. In 1946 and 1947 it won first place in the Texas High School Press Association. The publication has been awarded a National First Place Honor Award in the National High School Press Association this year.

The first "Pantherette" was sponsored by Miss Agnes Edens in 1926. Mrs. Minnie E. Tipton took over two years later when the first journalism class was formed. Since 1942 the paper has been under Mrs. Margaret Caskey's direction.

Editor for the fall term is Marianne Morris with Dick Growald and Billy Bullard as assistants.

Future journalistic hopefuls can be found in the Cub Reporters Club, which was organized this September. Officers are Ross Rumph, president; Jimmy Hanrahan, vice-president; and Helen Love, secretary.

PENTA CLUB

One of the oldest clubs in Paschal, the Penta Club, was organized in 1918 by Miss Charlie Noble. It is made up of honor students who have an "A" throughout three years of high school mathematics.

The goal of the club is to increase interest in mathematics. The Penta awards ribbons, letters, and pins to pupils making high mathematic grades. The club also sponsors slide rule classes each semester and participates in the Math Day Program.

Officers of the Penta are Marianne Morris, president; Suzanne Harper, vice-president; Sue Markley, secretary. Miss Caroline Gaither is the sponsor.

VAGABOND CLUB

Giving plays is the object of the Vagabond Club, and they achieve their aim by producing hit after hit. High-point of the year to every Vagabond is the three-act play given in the spring. "Janie," "Ever Since Eve," "June Mad," and "The Divine Flora" have been their productions the past four years—all highly successful.

The Vagabonds began with a bang this year by producing "Babbitt's Boy," starring Bob Floyd, Judy Davis, and Ronald Dieb.

This is the twentieth anniversary of the Vagabond Players; for twenty years those interested in dramatics have come and gone, leaving behind reminders of successful achievements and carrying with them memories of laughs and struggles and a fine fellowship.

Mrs. Miriam Todd has directed the club for several years with Miss Lucy Ann Payne as business sponsor.

Officers this year are Bob Floyd, president; Ronald Dieb, vice-president; and Arden Wilson, secretary and treasurer.

Y-TEENS CLUB

"The Y-Teens Club of Paschal," as stated in the preamble of the Y-Teen's charter, "is dedicated to the purpose of building a fellowship of girls and is devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which Christians are committed."

At the semi-monthly meetings, talks on subjects of interest to high school girls, such as "choosing a college," are made. Plans are also made for club activities, which include parties, picnics, and special holiday celebrations. The main social event is the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held in the spring.

The club is sponsored by Mrs. Pensive Robertson. The officers are Willa Dean Dudley, president; Margie Donahue, vice-president; Virginia Henderson, secretary; and Norma Jean Bell, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times." (Isaiah 33, 6.)

The National Honor Society is composed of seniors chosen only on the merit of their scholarship; membership is for the most part honorary recognition of outstanding students.

The organization represents the upper fifteen percent of each graduating class, all of whom must have no less than a "B" average and an "A" in citizenship—maintained throughout three years of high school.

Miss Agnes Edens, sponsor, checks the records and conducts the elections of this organization, which made its first awards in Paschal in 1936.

Fort Worth's high school athletic facilities have grown with the city's progress, as modern Farrington Field testifies.

Where once all high school sports events were staged at old Wortham Field and then until 1939 in LaGrave Field converted to football for three months a year, Farrington Field, seating 20,000, affords enviable facilities.

Scene of more than fifty games a year and last fall the site of the state championship football play-off, Farrington Field ranks high in school stadiums over the state.

In the plans for construction is a $250,000 field house for high school basketball games adjacent to Farrington Field, to seat 4000 to 5000 people.

FOOTBALL

The Paschal Panther Football Team of 1948 was a "wonder" team. Starting with only two lettermen and fifteen squadmen from the '47 team, the upsurging team won an unexpected, undefeated Co-championship of the Fort Worth District in the Big City Conference, tying with favored Arlington Heights.

Charles Turner, Coach.

BASKETBALL

1949 proved to be another banner year for Paschal in basketball. Picked to come in fourth at the beginning of the season, the Panthers sailed to 24 straight victories in pre-season and district play and then went on to cop the Big City Crown at the Houston tournament, March 11-12. This is Coach Turner's second State Championship and his fifth District Championship in six years at Paschal.

Calendar

Fort Worth's busy downtown streets of today are those of a metropolis and a far cry from the sleepy, dusty streets of early Fort Worth in which, the legend goes, a panther was seen asleep at mid-day.

Now over 340,373 people pass down the brightly lighted theatre district that is West Seventh Street.
